Program Announced for World's Foremost Residence and Citizenship Forum

London, 17 March 2015

The world's most respected experts in the field of residence and citizenship planning will come together at the Dolder Grand Hotel, Zurich on 5-6 May 2015 for The Henley & Partners Forum 2015.

Designed to shine the spotlight on key developments in field, the Forum's program includes addresses from, and panel discussions with, top tier international service providers and senior government officials such as the The Hon. Dr. Joseph Muscat, Prime Minister of Malta. It fittingly culminates in a gala dinner with a short address by Professor Dr. h.c. mult. Claude Nicollier, the Swiss former ESA Astronaut on Space Shuttle Missions, who will speak on his experiences and thoughts on Global Citizenship.

Says Eric Major, CEO of Henley & Partners, the industry pioneers hosting the Forum, "As the field of residence and citizenship planning is expanding at a rapid pace, it is becoming increasingly important to stay abreast of trends and changes. More importantly perhaps, is building a trusted network with the leading lights in the industry. This is what we have endeavored to create with our events, a platform to do just that."

Attendees will hear first-hand from the world's most respected professionals in the field and the government representatives and thought leaders that really matter, and meet senior government officials of relevant countries from around the world.
